Who Is This Course For?

This qualification is designed for those interested in a career in the social care sector.

What Can I Learn On This Course?

This course is an ideal taster for those who may be new to the sector or new to the world of work. It aims to introduce some basic concepts of caring and preparation for employment in the sector. The qualification covers the areas of communication, equality, diversity and inclusion, personal development, role of the social care worker, handling information, health and safety, safeguarding, duty of care and person-centred approaches.

How Is This Course Delivered?

Although this is an online course, you will receive extensive individual support throughout your studies. Your dedicated tutor is available to provide guidance and answer questions via email, telephone, Microsoft Teams calls, or in-person meetings. This approach ensures that you can study flexibly but have access to regular support in a way that suits your personal circumstances.

What Will I Need To Bring With Me?

To complete the course, you will need access to a computer and the internet. You will be given access to an online assessment account (e-assessor) to record and document your learning evidence.

What Skills Or Experience Do I Need?

No prior qualifications, experience or skills are needed, but you may find it helpful if you already achieved a level 1 qualification. You will also benefit from possessing basic IT skills to allow you to access the online materials.

How Will My Work Be Assessed?

This course is awarded by NCFE.

You will receive your own study pack made up of high-quality workbooks which your assigned specialist tutor will guide you through to complete your studies. You will be expected to complete all assessments on e-assessor, and your tutor will provide feedback after each assessment.
