Who Is This Course For?

This qualification is designed for anyone looking to gain an understanding of the different issues affecting equality and diversity in today's society.

What Can I Learn On This Course?

This course will explore how Britain is a culturally diverse nation that respects and values the differences in people. Companies and organisations are legally required to follow a set of practices to ensure discrimination is eradicated and expectations of equality are met. A good understanding of the wide-ranging legislation is essential in creating a workplace that is centred on fairness, dignity and respect.

On this course you will:

- Learn the importance of equality and diversity within different contexts
- Gain an understanding of the different issues affecting equality and diversity in today's society

How Is This Course Delivered?

Although this is an online course, you will receive extensive individual support throughout your studies. Your dedicated tutor is available to provide guidance and answer questions via email, telephone, Microsoft Teams calls, or in-person meetings. This approach ensures that you can study flexibly but have access to regular support in a way that suits your personal circumstances.

What Will I Need To Bring With Me?

To complete the course, you will need access to a computer and the internet. You will be given access to an online assessment account (e-assessor) to record and document your learning evidence.

What Skills Or Experience Do I Need?

No prior qualifications, experience or skills are needed, but you may find it helpful if you already achieved a level 1 qualification. You will also benefit from possessing basic IT skills to allow you to access the online materials.

How Will My Work Be Assessed?

This course is awarded by NCFE. You will receive your own study pack made up of high-quality workbooks which your assigned specialist tutor will guide you through to complete your studies. You will be expected to complete all assessments on e-assessor, and your tutor will provide feedback after each assessment.

What Can I Do After The Course?

After completing this online course, you may wish to consider our various other Online Learning Programmes such as:
