Important Information

After submitting an enrolment request you will be contacted by a member of our team to complete a questionnaire. The questionnaire must be returned before your enrolment can be finalised.

Who Is This Course For?

This qualification is for anyone working or volunteering in an Early Years setting who wishes to improve their understanding of neuroscience in the early years. This qualification includes 30 placement hours to be organised yourself; we are unable to provide placements.

What Can I Learn On This Course?

This course has 2 units:

- Unit 2: Understanding self-regulation and how to nurture this in children from birth to seven years

Unit 1: Understanding neuroscience in early years

The units focus on how the social brain develops, the limbic system, and self-regulation.

How Is This Course Delivered?

Although this is an online course, you will receive extensive individual support throughout your studies. Your dedicated tutor is available to provide guidance and answer questions via email, telephone, Microsoft Teams calls, or in-person meetings. This approach ensures that you can study flexibly but have access to regular support in a way that suits your personal circumstances.

What Will I Need To Bring With Me?

To complete the course, you will need access to a computer and the internet. You will be given access to an online assessment account (e-assessor) to record and document your learning evidence.

What Skills Or Experience Do I Need?

No prior experience is needed, but you need to be employed or volunteering in and early years setting to complete the required 30 placement hours.

How Will My Work Be Assessed?

This course is awarded by NCFE. You will receive a study pack made up of high-quality workbooks which your assigned specialist tutor will guide you through to complete your studies. You will be expected to complete all assessments on e-assessor, and your tutor will provide feedback after each assessment.

What Can I Do After The Course?

You could progress onto other online courses/programmes, such as:
Level 2 Certificate in Adverse Childhood Experiences

Level 2 Diploma for the Early Years Practitioner

Level 2 Children and Young People's Mental Health

Your tutor will be happy to discuss your options with you.
