Who Is This Course For?

This qualification is suitable for those working with children and wishing to increase their knowledge and awareness of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) relevant to their current role.

What Can I Learn On This Course?

This qualification will provide you with an opportunity to develop an understanding of adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) and will equip you with a basic understanding of techniques for preventing and addressing ACEs in practice.

There are 3 units in this course:

- Exploring Childhood and Family Structures
- Introduction to Adverse Childhood Experiences
- Understand Strategies to Improve Outcomes for Children Affected by Adverse Childhood Experiences

How Is This Course Delivered?

Although this is an online course, you will receive extensive individual support throughout your studies. Your dedicated tutor is available to provide guidance and answer questions via email, telephone, Microsoft Teams calls, or in-person meetings. This approach ensures that you can study flexibly but have access to regular support in a way that suits your personal circumstances.

What Will I Need To Bring With Me?

To complete the course, you will need access to a computer and the internet. You will be given access to an online assessment account (e-assessor) to record and document your learning evidence.

What Skills Or Experience Do I Need?

You must be working within an appropriate setting to be able to meet the assessment requirements of this qualification, including obtaining witness testimony from your manager or a colleague with whom you work.

How Will My Work Be Assessed?

This course is awarded by NCFE. You will receive your own study pack made up of high-quality workbooks which your assigned specialist tutor will guide you through to complete your studies. You will be expected to complete all assessments on e-assessor, and your tutor will provide feedback after each assessment. Additionally, you will be required to obtain witness testimony from your manager or a colleague.

What Can I Do After The Course?

You may wish to consider some of our other Online Learning courses:
Level 2 Certificate in Understanding Behaviour that Challenges
